

2011 Black and Blue
Civil War Sesquicentennial
(150th Anniversary) Commemoration

Living History Events of
Friends of the Forks of the Roads Society Inc

O c t o b e r 1 , 2 0 1 1

Historic Jefferson Military College
Washington, Mississippi
(On U. S. Highway 61 North, Just East of Natchez)
7:00 A.M. - 4:00 P.M.

<http://www.forksoftheroads.net/events/black-blue.htm>

2011 Black and Blue
Civil War Sesquicentennial
(150th Anniversary) Commemoration

Living History Events of
Friends of the Forks of the Roads Society Inc

O c t o b e r 1 , 2 0 1 1

Historic Jefferson Military College
Washington, Mississippi
(On U. S. Highway 61 North, Just East of Natchez)
7:00 A.M. - 4:00 P.M.

<http://www.forksoftheroads.net/events/black-blue.htm>

Theme: The Civil War Sesquicentennial (150th Anniversary) of “Slaves” Planning to Self-Emancipate by Annihilating Their Male and Certain Female Masters in Adams and Jefferson Counties in 1861.

Ourstory: Sesquicentennial Commemoration of 2011 presents a living history drama of stories of enslaved persons at Adams County’s Second Creek, the City of Natchez and in Jefferson County who after the Civil War began in 1861, planned to destroy chattel slavery by annihilating their masters and collaborate with the Union Army as freedom fighters.

7:00 - 9:00 a.m. . MAAFA Caravan to Help Free Their Spirit by making Forgotten Offerings Libations at Sites of Whippings/Hangings. This will commence an annual Mississippi MAAFA in conjunction with national October MAAFA ceremonies.

Assemble in your cars at Natchez’s Forks of the Road enslavement markets sites, St. Catherine St. & Liberty Road at 6:30 a.m. .

11:00 a.m. . - Guest Speaker: Breaking the Silence About One of America’s Largest “Slave” Insurrection Planning: Jefferson College

1:00 p.m. . - Living History Drama Unfolding Events of Enslaved Freedom Planners 150 Years Ago..Rain or Shine: Jefferson College

Bring Your Lawn Chairs for outside /Calling African Drummers and Libation Spiritualists

ONGOING EVENT OF OUR ONGOING CAMPAIGN FOR EQUAL
HISTORY COMMEMORATIONS IN MISSISSIPPI

Tselane Mbou
Creation
4/2011

Theme: The Civil War Sesquicentennial (150th Anniversary) of “Slaves” Planning to Self-Emancipate by Annihilating Their Male and Certain Female Masters in Adams and Jefferson Counties in 1861.

Ourstory: Sesquicentennial Commemoration of 2011 presents a living history drama of stories of enslaved persons at Adams County’s Second Creek, the City of Natchez and in Jefferson County who after the Civil War began in 1861, planned to destroy chattel slavery by annihilating their masters and collaborate with the Union Army as freedom fighters.

7:00 - 9:00 a.m. . MAAFA Caravan to Help Free Their Spirit by making Forgotten Offerings Libations at Sites of Whippings/Hangings. This will commence an annual Mississippi MAAFA in conjunction with national October MAAFA ceremonies.

Assemble in your cars at Natchez’s Forks of the Road enslavement markets sites, St. Catherine St. & Liberty Road at 6:30 a.m. .

11:00 a.m. . - Guest Speaker: Breaking the Silence About One of America’s Largest “Slave” Insurrection Planning: Jefferson College

1:00 p.m. . - Living History Drama Unfolding Events of Enslaved Freedom Planners 150 Years Ago..Rain or Shine: Jefferson College

Bring Your Lawn Chairs for outside /Calling African Drummers and Libation Spiritualists

ONGOING EVENT OF OUR ONGOING CAMPAIGN FOR EQUAL
HISTORY COMMEMORATIONS IN MISSISSIPPI

Tselane Mbou
Creation
4/2011